Guide Book

If you want to aim at National Universities, or Prestigious Private Universities! Musashi Urawa Japanese Language Institute

Feature

01 "School Corporation" means...

A school corporation is a public interest corporation approved by the Ministry of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology or the prefectural governor, and is highly public. Since we are allowed to operate schools, a socially responsible business, our operations are carried out under the guidance of the national and prefectural governments. There are various types of Japanese language schools, such as "School Corporations", "foundations", and "joint-stock companies". At Musashi Urawa Japanese Language Institute, we have a common desire to be a quality educational institution, so we have developed our teaching environment, received approval as an "School Corporations," and are doing our best to brush up the quality of education.

Employment Guidance
Division

Takahiro Yoshikawa

With the declining birthrate and aging population in Japan, job opportunities for foreigners are increasing, and if you have graduated from a university or graduate school in your home country, you may be able to obtain a work visa and work in a variety of occupations. At our school, we are always available to meet with employment agencies and students to provide them with employment information. The better your communication, reading, and writing skills in Japanese, the higher chance you have of finding a job. We will support your proactive information gathering and action.

Academic Guidance
Division

Shi Min

We support students to enter vocational schools, universities, and graduate schools by providing guidance for interviews and essays. In particular, students who wish to enter a graduate school need to prepare a research plan, so we offer classes on preparing a research plan and provide individual guidance that meets the research characteristics of each student. In tutoring, we do not provide "guidance for success" but rather "guidance with a view toward post-admission to after admission. Why don't you acquire the ability to do research in a Japanese graduate school?"

Academic Guidance
Division (Art)

Yoshinori Koizumi

At our school, we have many students majoring in arts, and we provide guidance for undergraduate and graduate schools of arts universities, and we have many students who enter these universities every year. Our guidance focuses on the collection of works (portfolio), research plan, information gathering for higher education, written examinations, interview preparation, and briefing sessions for higher education. The team consists of the homeroom teacher of the art class, a lecturer specializing in art invited from outside, and a lecturer in charge of higher education.

Feature

04 Choosing your desired career path

Our school accepts students who wish to pursue a variety of career paths. For students who wish to find a job, we offer classes such as "how to write application documents," "interview etiquette," and "how to send phone calls and e-mails to companies" at any time outside of class hours according to their job hunting schedule. In cooperation with a major human resource service company, we fully support students in acquiring the skills necessary for employment.

03 Reliable Life Support

Our school also makes an effort to support international students in their daily lives in Japan. After arriving in Japan, there are many procedures that need to be completed, such as resident registration and National Health Insurance. In order to relieve the anxiety of international students, we provide airport pickup, support for cell phone contracts, and accompany students to register for resident registration and open bank accounts. In addition, for students who want to work part-time, we will hold a part-time job information session at the school where they can have an interview on the spot. Many students have been able to start working right away.

03

We can help you find a job in Japan!

The Employment Guidance Division and homeroom teachers work together to provide careful support for students to find employment in Japan. At job hunting seminars, we conduct aptitude tests and explain industry and company research for job hunting and company selection. At external job hunting events, you can hear directly from people at companies. There are also opportunities to hear about how Graduates of our school are working now and how they went about their job hunting.

Greetings from the Chairman

Musashi Urawa Japanese Language Institute obtained approval from the Governor of Saitama and was established as a school corporation on the 1st of April 2003. The institution specializes in Japanese language education to prepare students for exams to enter universities, graduate schools or vocational schools in Japan. We also focus on teaching basic subjects in order to ensure admission to prestigious schools.

If you're looking for an institution with good qualities, please come to study at our school by all means. The entire faculty and staff will continue to support you with sincerity.

Chairman

Hideko Tamada

Academic Affairs
Director

Aki Nakahara

Living and studying in Japan, you may have some concerns and worries. In such cases, please consult with us right away. We will work with you not only on your Japanese language studies, but also on issues related to higher education and daily life. We will provide guidance and support to help each student achieve his or her goals.

Students learn the four skills of "reading, writing, listening, and speaking" in a well-balanced manner from beginner to advanced levels. Whether you are learning Japanese for the first time or already have an intermediate level of Japanese, you can study according to your own level. We also provide guidance so that students can go on to higher education or find employment as they wish. For those who want to take their time to learn Japanese, we recommend the 2-year course.

What is Prep Course?

Our two-year course and one-year and six-month course have been designated as "Prep Courses" by the Minister of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology. Students who have graduated from high school in their countries with less than 12 years of primary and secondary education are not eligible to apply for Japanese universities, but if they complete the Prep Courses, they will be eligible to apply for universities in Japan.

Classes

After entering the school, students take a placement test and are placed in classes that match their abilities. Classes are divided into two sections, morning and afternoon. Basic subjects are taught during the same lunch period for both morning and afternoon classes.

In our school, there are four Japanese language classes a day, each lasting 45 minutes. The classes are designed to help students develop the four skills of reading, writing, listening, and speaking in a well-balanced manner in preparation for higher education. Our school has a class teacher system in order to answer questions and advice about the class.

Individual interviews, career counseling, and supplementary classes will be held outside of class hours as needed. Regular examinations are held at the end of each semester, and students who pass the examinations can move on to the next level. The school is closed on Saturdays, Sundays, and national holidays. In addition, there are about 20 days each of spring, summer, and winter vacations.

Now, you too can go to National Universities or Prestigious Private Universities!

 Graduate School of Niigata University of Health and Welfare
 Doctor of Health Sciences in Graduate School of Medical and Welfare Sciences

I would like to be a bridge between my home country and Japan and contribute to the development of the field of Technician's equipment and welfare equipment division in both countries. Why don't you start learning Japanese and living in Japan in order to realize your dream in Japan? You can be active in Japanese universities and companies. Good Luck to you All!

Global Works CO. LTD. Office Worker

PHAN DIEU HUYEN / Vietnam
 Graduate Institute for Entrepreneurial Studies

I am currently working at the Hanoi branch of a Japanese company in Vietnam. Of course, I use Japanese for my work, but language skills alone are not enough to do a good job. Specialized knowledge is also necessary, and I am continuing to study hard. Human relations are also very important, so please make as many good friends as you can while you are in Japan.

Meet and greet at the airport

On the day of entry for new students, school staff will pick them up at the airport and head to Saitama with them, so don't worry if you don't know how to take the train or bus.

Support for post-arrival procedures

There is no need to worry about post-arrival procedures, as the school will help you register as a resident, open a bank account, and purchase a cell phone.

When a foreigner wants to live in Japan, he or she may be concerned about housing. At our school, we have some dormitories for students, so you can start your life with peace of mind. There are many dormitories near the school, so commuting to school is easy! There is also a park rich in nature where you can relax and refresh yourself with your friends after school.

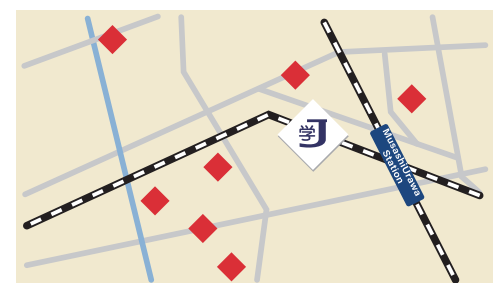

part-time job information sessions

For students who have just arrived in Japan and can't speak Japanese very well, we have several companies come to our orientation after they arrive and hold part-time job information sessions with interpreters. If you wish, you can have an interview on the spot. We also provide consultation services at any time, including interview practice and guidance on how to write resumes, to help you get hired.
